The 'Esprit de France' Story began at the initiative of its founder, Christophe PALUEL-MARMONT who wanted to create a Club for Owners of Châteaux, Hotels, Manors, Country Homes and Estate Houses, gathered around a common Passion : Heritage, Art, and History. The 'Esprit de France' Residences and Hotels are all located near places of Art and History, claiming to introduce a cultural dimension offering their guests a 'Unique Experience'. 40 are the Members of 'Esprit de France' in 2017. The first Hotel opening under the Logo 'Esprit de France' was the Hôtel des Saint Pères in PARIS in 1981. The total number of rooms is of 686 and 15 Residences are listed as Historical Monuments.

The official explanation given for the symbolism behind the 'Esprit de France' logo is : 'The ancient oak reflects the union between a rich past and a promising future, between respect for History and the advantages of modernity. Its many leaves, connected to the branches, symbolise the Esprit de France members'.
