On March 28, 2018, at the Hotel De Crillion (Paris) a Special Event introducing Works of Art from "Le Cabinet De Porcelaine" (with the Presence of Samuel Mazy) in favor of a Charity Association "Naître Et Vivre". This Association is dedicated to Welcoming Bereaved Parents, also Working on Prevention of Sudden Infant Death. They provide Support, Research and Prevention to Families. This Association is part of a Large Event called "Une Fleur, Une Vie" (One Flower, One Life).

"Le Cabinet De Porcelaine" represents the Works of Two Porcelain Artists, Didier Gardillou and Samuel Mazy who have revived the Antique Craft of the Porcelain Florist. This Art appeared in the Course of the 1740s at the Manufactory of Vincennes, which in Time would move and become the Royal Manufactory of Sèvres.

During the Years 1745-1755, the only Profitable Production was indeed the Flowers, which were arranged in Vases created by the Best Manufactory in the World. At that Time, the Only Fresh Flowers to be found in Townhouses were Flower Bulbs. It was in Porcelain that the First Real Bouquets, were created (Paintings representing Bouquets were in fact Moralising Still-Lives in which Each Flower embodied a Virtue).

Five (5) International Artists were participating to the Event and selling their Works of Art, Donating the Profits to the Association "NAITRE ET VIVRE". They were asked to create and give Samuel Mazy (who was participating and Organizing) a Muguet (Lily from the Valley / Thrush) Flower that will make a Unique Collection of 120 Muguets. They were : Alessandra Branca (Chicago) Linda Pinto (Paris and NY), Frederic de Luca (Paris), Caroline Freymond (Switzerland), Kazumi Yoshida (NYC). The price is 200 euros for each. From April 1st, sold at Le Cabinet de Porcelaine 37 rue de Verneuil, Paris 7e.
