Paris, Astana, 30.08.2015, 01:37 Time

USPA NEWS - Teddy Riner won Saturday eighth world title in the category "Queen" 100 kilos Astana Kazakhstan. He realised a record never before realised by another judoka! The French was 4 times European champion, 8 times world champion and Olympic champion once. Teddy Riner wins against Japanese Ryu Shichinohe.

Teddy Riner wins by facing the Estonian Juhan Mettis in 4'15. He then confronts Lurii Krakovetskii in 2'43, and then in the end of morning faces the German Andre Breitbarth (1'51).

After three victories by "ipponil" returned in the semifinals, and beats the South Korea's Sung-Min Kim.

The final was spectacular against the Japanese Ryu Shichinohe phenomenal. Teddy Riner then ends him up with a "waza-ari" and a definitive "yuko" , which enable Teddy to dominate his formidable opponent.

Teddy Riner must be the happiest judoka for having received the greatest podium, that night for the unique feat in the world of being undefeated in 5 consecutive years and winning his 8th medal world champion in judo.

His mental strength and winning attitude allowed him to constantly question himself about his boundaries who he extends and despite an already glorious record that could allow him to rest on his medals. But that does not look like Teddy's type.

In March, an injury had brakes in his effort to the European Championships in late June as part of the Baku European Games. But that seems to be cleared and exceeded for a display such as Astana at the end of summer.
